Discover the Opportunity

80011: Aurora's Heartbeat

Located in the heart of Aurora, 80011 is a melting pot of cultures, families, and young professionals. With a population of over 70,000, this area is ripe for a new church that speaks to the diverse needs of its residents. The community is characterized by a significant Hispanic population, making up nearly 40% of the residents. The median age is a youthful 31 and reflects a community that is vibrant and full of potential.

80022: Commerce City's Growing Hub

Commerce City, represented by zip code 80022, is one of the fastest-growing areas in Colorado. Home to over 60,000 residents, this community boasts a large percentage of young families and bilingual households. With a Hispanic population nearing 50%, there is a profound need for a church that can minister in both English and Spanish, offering spiritual support and a sense of belonging.

80229: Thornton's Flourishing Community

Thornton, under the zip code 80229, is a thriving suburb of Denver with a population exceeding 40,000. The area is known for its family-friendly atmosphere, excellent schools, and strong sense of community. With nearly 35% of its population identifying as Hispanic, a bilingual or Spanish-speaking church would fill a crucial gap in providing spiritual guidance and community cohesion.

Why Plant a Church Here?

- Diverse and Growing Populations: Each of these zip codes is home to a rapidly growing and diverse population. The increasing number of bilingual and Spanish-speaking residents presents a unique opportunity to reach out and serve these communities effectively.
- Young Families and Professionals: The median age across these areas is low, with many young families and professionals looking for community, support, and spiritual growth. Your church could be the beacon of hope and fellowship they are seeking.
- Cultural Richness: The rich cultural tapestry of these neighborhoods offers a fertile ground for a church that embraces diversity and inclusion, making your ministry vibrant and dynamic.
- Community Needs: There is a pressing need for churches that can offer services, support, and outreach in both English and Spanish. Many residents are searching for a spiritual home that understands and respects their cultural heritage while guiding them in their faith journey.

The Rocky Mountain Network is here to support you every step of the way. We provide resources, training, and a network of fellow pastors to help you succeed in your church planting journey. If you are a bilingual or Spanish-speaking pastor with a heart for ministry and a vision for growth, we want to hear from you!
