Plant a Church in the Heart of Utah's Vibrant St. George and Hurricane Communities!

Are you a visionary church planter seeking just the right fit to plant a new congregation? Look no further than the dynamic and growing communities of St. George and Hurricane, Utah. Nestled in the scenic backdrop of Utah's majestic Rocky Mountains, these areas offer an exceptional blend of opportunity, need, and adventure.

Why Plant a Church Here?

The zip codes of 84737 (Hurricane), 84770, and 84790 (St. George) are experiencing significant population growth. St. George, known for its warm climate and outdoor lifestyle, is one of the fastest-growing metropolitan areas in the United States. The region's population is diverse, ranging from young families to retirees, all contributing to a vibrant community fabric.

Demographic Appeal

- Young Families: With many new housing developments, St. George and Hurricane attract young families seeking quality education, safe neighborhoods, and a family-friendly environment.
- Retirees: The pleasant climate and beautiful scenery draw retirees looking for an active and fulfilling lifestyle.
- Students: Dixie State University in St. George brings in a youthful, energetic population eager for connection and community.

The Need for a Life-Giving Church

- Spiritual Vacuum: Utah, traditionally dominated by the LDS Church, is witnessing a significant shift. Many residents are leaving the LDS faith, searching for new spiritual homes and communities where they can find life, hope, and authentic connection. This spiritual vacuum presents a unique opportunity for Assemblies of God church planters to step in and offer something truly transformative.
- Community and Connection: There is a growing demand for places where people can come together, build relationships, and find support. A Rocky Mountain Network church can meet these needs.
- Engaging Worship Services: Uplifting and contemporary worship that speaks to the hearts of all generations.
- Life Groups: Small groups that foster deep relationships and spiritual growth.
- Community Outreach: Programs that address the practical needs of the community, from food distribution to youth mentoring.

Embrace the Adventure

- Outdoor Paradise: St. George and Hurricane are outdoor enthusiasts' dream destinations. From hiking and mountain biking in Zion National Park to boating on the serene waters of Sand Hollow Reservoir, the area offers endless recreational opportunities. This adventurous spirit aligns perfectly with the vibrant, life-filled message that a new church can bring. Imagine church picnics in beautiful parks, youth group hiking trips, and community service projects that take advantage of the stunning natural surroundings.

- Strategic Location: Located just a short drive from Las Vegas, St. George and Hurricane are easily accessible via Interstate 15. This strategic location makes it convenient for church planters to connect with regional networks, receive support, and draw visitors from neighboring states.

Why Choose the Rocky Mountain Network?

- Proven Support System: Joining the Rocky Mountain Network means becoming part of a larger family dedicated to your success.
- Training and Resources: Comprehensive training programs and resources to help you establish and grow your church.
- Financial Assistance: Potential funding to support your church planting efforts.
- Mentorship: Access to experienced mentors who can guide you through the church planting journey.
